Camilla Pay

Camilla Pay graduated from the Royal Academy of Music and has since been made an associate there for her outstanding contribution to the music world. She continues to forge a unique career, combining the concert platform, recording studio and television.

As a performer she has given concerts all over the world with her chamber group The Korros Ensemble (flute, Eliza Marshall & clarinet, Nicholas Ellis), as the duo Willow (flute & harp) and as a soloist.

Her session work includes recording tracks for many well known artists including John Legend, Ellie Goulding, Sam Smith & Morrissey. She also has played on the soundtracks for several Hollywood films & television dramas for composers such as Danny Elfman & James Newton-Howard.

On television she has performed on all the major shows, including Strictly Come Dancing, The Graham Norton Show, Later with Jools Holland, The Jonathan Ross Show and many more, with artists including The Killers, Bette Midler & Beyoncé.

She has toured and performed live with a wide range of artists, such as Kanye West, George Benson, Jay-Z & Alfie Boe.

She is also no stranger to the West-End theatre, having been the harpist for A Chorus Line at the London Palladium, Umbrellas of Cherbourg and many performances of Gypsy & the Wizard of Oz.
