Ensemble Mirage

Ensemble Mirage is a dynamic flexi-ensemble, focusing on the fantastic range of mixed Wind-String-Piano chamber music. From trios to octets – working with a small group of dedicated, passionate and award-winning chamber musicians – they aim to expand the standard chamber repertoire, bringing to light many often overlooked works. Each programme tends to focus on a particular instrumental combination, presenting the well-known works alongside more rarely heard pieces for that chamber medium.

This mixed programme presents the 'Clarinet, Violin and Piano Trio' alongside a couple of instrumental duos and a solo piano work.

Finalists in the 66th Royal Overseas League Mixed Chamber category and Making Music Selected Artists, they were also St. John's Smith Square Young Artists and held an Aldeburgh Chamber Music Residency. Evolving from Trio Mirage – Royal Academy of Music Chamber Fellows and Harold Craxton Prize winners – the ensemble grew to explore larger repertoire resulting in the foundation of Ensemble Mirage.

Individually, members are award-winning artists in their own right, active across all areas of the profession, from solo, chamber and orchestral, to outreach work; performing with many of the UK's top orchestras. With many members alumni of the Countess of Munster Musical Trust Recital Scheme and Making Music's Award for Young Concert Artists, the ensemble has grown and performed in various combinations for Music Societies and Festivals throughout the UK.
